

Short courses. Big impact.

For the better.

A little learning can go a long way. Make a big impact to your career or passion with a Chisholm short course.

What is a short course?

A Chisholm short course can go a long way – lead you to a new job, assist with getting a promotion or enable you to pursue a new career pathway or hobby that you are passionate about. Usually conducted over one or more sessions, short courses are also a great way to develop new skills, while deciding whether to commit to a long-term Chisholm qualification.

Our short course areas

- > Accounting and bookkeeping
- > Allied health and nursing
- > Aquatics
- > Art, design and photography
- > Automotive
- > Building and Construction
- > Business and finance
- > Community and social services
- > Electrical
- > Engineering
- > Early Childhood Education
- > General education
- > Hair, beauty and make-up
- > Health and safety
- > Hospitality and cookery
- > Information technology
- > Plumbing
- > Sport, fitness and massage
- > Work health and safety.

Why do a short course?

- > Obtain an industry licence or ticket
- > Professional development
- > Refresh skills or upskill
- > Career or personal interest
- > Ease your way back into long-term study
- > For fun or a hobby
- > Be part of your community and meet like-minded people.

We are adding new short courses and dates all the time. For more information, including session details, dates, locations and costs, visit chisholm.edu.au/shortcourses.